

When He Walks With Me

Julie Gold

1.

He walks in the ghet-to
and the Ho-ly Land.
He walks in- the gar-den
and across the sand.
And He walks beside my al-ly,
and my ene-my-.
And I know that I walk tal-ler,
when He- walks with me.

2.

He walks with the beg-gar
searching for so-me bread.
He sleeps a-t the sta-tion
on a concrete bed.
And I know He has His rea-sons, whate-ver they ma-y be-.
And I know that I walk tal-ler,
when He- walks with me.

B

And He hears the voices ri-sing Ah - - - - - from cities set aflame. Ah - - - - -
He knows the people calling Him Ah - - - - - by ev'ry so-rt of name. Ah - - - - -
And He hears the baby cry-ing.
He hears the old man pray.
And we all will walk to-geth-er
on the- judgeme-nt day.

3.

He walks with the war-den
and the capti-ve man.
Each one is- a pri-s'ner
with an es-cape plan.
And He lets the bad things hap-pen
so that we mi-ght see-.
And I know that I walk tal-ler,
when He- walks with me.

C

When He- wa-lks
 When He walks
Whe-n He- wa-lks
 When He wa-lks
When He Wa- - - - - - lks
 Whe-n He walks

He walks in the ghet-to
and the Ho-ly Land.
He walks in- the gar-den
and across the sand.
And He walks beside my al-ly,
and my ene-my-.
And I know that I walk tal-ler,
when He- walks - with me.
